LEGE-ALEXANDER CAMPBELL.-There is no situally unjust and ferocious than the New Yor Tribune, in all matters that are opposed to it crotchets. We noticed recently the malignat assault made on Dr. Oliver Wendell Holme of the celebration in New York of the "Land ing of the Pilgrims," to give sound and whole some advice to his Northern friends on the sub ject of leaving slavery to the management of those who had it among them Neither hi sentiments nor facts were noticed, but he was assailed with coarse, malignant billingsgate. member of the firm of Mason & Brothers pa lished an article in the "Publishers' Circular on newspaper critics, and the Tribnne assaile him with violent denunciations and slander When the assailed party asks permission to defend himself in the Tribune hi equest was refused, and he was not permitte even to advertise his answer in that paper except upon condition of signing a docume drawn up in the Tribune office, which contains a series of slanderous imputations upon other presses. Mr. Mason refused thus to be made a degraded tool. Finding that he could get a prosecute the conductors of the Tribune for ibel; he commenced proceedings, and we de not remember any specimen of climbing dow wards that excelled that given by the Tribus The conductors of that paper not only th ublished Mr. Mason's card, but came out wi full recantation of the slanders upon Mr. Mason. Although they had pretended that the calumnious statements were matters cognizant to themselves, they made a most humiliating retreat and acknowledged that Mr. Mason was innocent of the allegata they had fulminate against him.

We should have thought that the Mason case would have taught the Tribune some little pr ice and the use of some discreet judgment But its conductors are thoroughly rabid on all Life. The wine of her poetry, notwithstanding subjects connected with slavery. They have recently taken advantage of an emeute a Bethany College, led by a Canadian and a small number of beardless boys who are as crazy a the Tribune on slavery topics, to villify th character of Alexander Campbell, the distin that gentleman is known, throughout the civi ized world, be is recognized as one of the more learned, one of the ablest and purest of more There is not probably in this country a get tleman who wields such an influence he does, among many of the noblest a best men and women in America. His person character is without a stain, and must be near resort to slander in order to assail it. Th Campbell acted toward the seditious and rebe lious students with the least degree of impr priety, for their open, flagrant, and outraged violation of the laws of Virginia. Instead of dopting that course, the Tribune resorts ith the issues of this case. In that paper, o the 7th inst., we find the following:

The Rev. Mr. Campbell, it is worthy of not not a native of Virginia, but of Scotland, as during a recent visit to his native country in brought as action for damages, in which he was successful, against some Scotch clergymat whom he accused of having maligned his anti-dament character.

did he ever bring an action for damages again any Scotch clergyman for maligning his ant slavery character. The Scotch clergyman a luded to did not charge Mr. Campbell wit being an asti slavery man; consequently is could not have marigued his anti-slavery cha acter. We ask the reader's attention now t

During a visit which Mr. Campbell made to Great Britain, in 1847, he preached in variou towns in England, and met the highest approba Edinburgh, a deputation of auti-slavery fanatic vaited upon him under the pretense of bold! a friendly conversation on the subject of slav ry. They never finted that they were depute by the Anti-Slavery Society. Mr. Campbe frankly expressed his seutiments and affirme that what be had published on the subject, i the Christian Baptist many years ago, was s il held by him to be true. A series of malignan ersecutions was at once established. A Mr a number, chosen at random. What could be spicuous. He had placards posted over Edin burgh to the effect: "Critizens of Edinburgh-Beware' beware! the Rev. Alexander Campbell of Virginia, has been a slaveholder himself au duct of Robertson was indecent, blackguard; h pretended to be anxious to get up a debate with Mr. Campbell on the subject of American slave ry, and followed him with placards over Scot land. At length Mr. Campbell published a let-ter, written in Dundee, in the Edinburgh Journal, August 21st, 1847, in which he re-viewed the Bible aspects of slavery, aud closed the letter with the following declaration: "I will, in either way, meet any gentlem whom they [the Anti-slavery Society] may select—even Mr Robertson himself—provided only that be be not that Reverend James Robert con who was publicly consured and excluded from the Baptist church for violating the fifth commandment in reference to his mother of meditation (**per variety), bythe file dampers with the displaced passage from "The Staten of The St this Mr. Robertson got out what is called a

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

I was stung by the generality of the remark in the first communication of "A Tax Payer" which appeared in your paper, but the second relieved me from any apprehensions the first was likely to produce, that it was intended by "A Tax Payer" to make the broad cbarge of want of faltifulness and honesty in the administration of the affairs of the company since October, 1854.

I hope the author of that communication well pardon me for addressing a few suggestions to this reason and good sense, to show that the obstine the first that the first was intended by an account of the extent as a count of the extent as a count of the extent as the first was likely to produce, that it was intended by "A Tax Payer" to make the broad cbarge of want of faltifulness and honesty in the administration of the affairs of the company since October, 1854.

I hope the author of that communication well pardon me for addressing a few suggestions to the region and good sense, to show that the obstine the first was mitted the produce of the improvement upon a country of such limited extent as a count of the extent as the flam.

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

CAUSES DECEDED.

The report has been quite current in the street that Mr. Rufus Sauger, dry goods importer, had suspended, but we are informed that hehas arranged with his creditors to secure 75 per cent. of their claims and go on in businesa. The other recent failures are not of sufficient importance to be noticed.

A Man and his Bottle Dug out of the Sa A Man and his Bottle Dug out of the Saone.—
On Senday afteraoon, some men were engaged in cleaning the suow from the aidewalk, near Hoele foundery, and after digging away a bank of aeveral feet in depth, much to their aurprise they came across a man aleeping quietly beside his bottle. He had taken lodgings on the walk the evening previous, and got anowed under. His breath had made a hole in the snow, and thus he was furnished with fresh air. A touch of the snow abovel brought him to consciousness.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce. LECTURE.

THEATER—A larger audience than that of the previous evening was present at the theater to witness Mr. Hayne's personation of Julia in the Hunchback. The performance of the character surpassed any previous representation even by herself. The interest of the piece grew with every act until the last, when the audience became breathless with enthusiatic feeling. This last act was a histrionic triumph. Mrs. Hayne's rendition exceeded even what we had expected.

Often as we have seen the character in her hands, we have never enjoyed its performance as we did last uight. The people of Louisville do not, lowever, need to be told that, Mrs. Hayne's performance of Julia is the best possible.

To-night Mrs. Hayne appears in one of the good old English comedies called "The Jealous Parks and frozen in solid." The provision is a clarged in the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestaged to the tilt for $600, to persons in the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestage and she was sold on the lith for $600, to persons in the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestage and the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestage and the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestage and the teighbor hood, who desire using the machinery for milestage.
